

Week in Review and Lookahead

Friday, April 22, 2022

This Monday was the 126th Boston Marathon and the first time since 2019 that the marathon was held on Patriots' Day. Congratulations to the runners and thank you to all of the hardworking MBTA staff, Transit Police, Boston Police, local government officials, and everyone else who made it all possible!

New Projects in Design

D Branch Station Accessibility Improvements

- ✓ Recap | Over the past week, the GLT team has been reviewing the 75% design plans for the D Branch Station Accessibility Improvements project to ensure they meet the highest quality standards. The team has also continued to develop plans for the electrical work to be completed, and for the construction of a new path between Beaconsfield to Waldstein Park as part of the project
- Lookahead | Please join us next Thursday, April 28th, as the Green Line Transformation team presents an update on the GLT program, including plans for the 2022 construction season, at the MBTA Board of Directors meeting
