

Forest Hills Station

Dan George

“Transcendental Greens”

Nine polychrome aluminum sculptures attached to each station column

Green Street Station

Virginia Gunter

“Color Passage”

Wire mesh and stained glass sculptures suspended above the tracks and platform

Stony Brook Station

Malou Flato

“Life Around Here”

Ceramic tile mural installed on the lobby curved wall

Jackson Square Station

Hyde Square Task Force and MBTA Community Art Program with muralist Roberto Chao

Large-scale graphic illustrations painted on the busway columns and mounted on the lobby and platform stairway walls

Linda and James Toatley

"Faces In the Crowd"

Metal sculpture relief located above the Outbound tracks

Roxbury Crossing Station

Susan Thompson

"Neighborhood"

Five colored banners hung above the lobby area

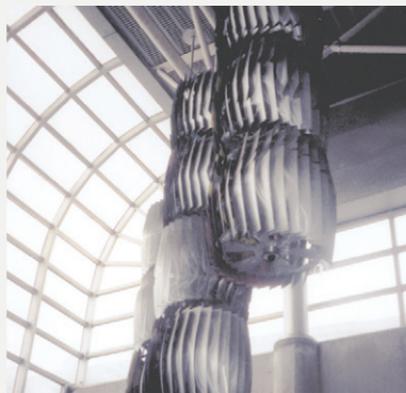

Ruggles Station

Paul Goodnight

"Geometree"

Ceramic/polychrome wall mural installed above the Columbus
Avenue entrance

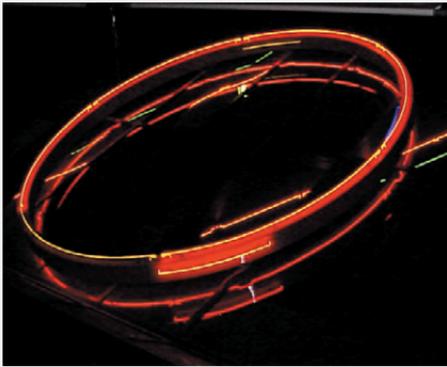

John Scott
"Stony Brook Dance"
Kinetic sculpture installed in the concourse lobby

Bruce Taylor

"Massachusetts Avenue Station"

Three aluminum kinetic sculptures hung over the Outbound tracks

Back Bay Station

Stephen Antonakos

"Neon for Back Bay Station"

Three multi-colored neon sculptures installed over the stairs and above each station entrance

Tufts Medical Center Station

Richard Gubernick

"Caravan"

Four abstract aluminum wall reliefs installed on each end of the Inbound and Outbound platforms

Chinatown Station

Toshihiro Katayama

"Colors on the Line"

Enameled steel panels along the Inbound tracks

State Station

Albert Paley

Untitled

Forged and fabricated steel gate near the Washington Street station entrance

Toshiro Katayama
"Polychrome painted star"
Images on panels located along the Orange and Blue Line connecting walkway

Sullivan Square Station

Local school students grades K-12

Thirty-two original artworks reproduced onto sixteen 4' x 4' panels and installed on the Inbound and Outbound platforms

Malden Center Station

Local school students grades K-12
Thirty-two original artworks reproduced onto sixteen 4' x 4' panels and installed on the Inbound and Outbound platforms

Letia Anderson

Student of Multicultural High School of Boston
"Sunbather"
Painted bench installed in the lobby

Angel Maldonado

Student of Timilty Middle School
of Boston
"Seated Man"
Painted bench installed in the lobby

Oak Grove Station

Lujan Renrick

Student of the John D.O'Bryant
Middle School
"A Joyful Noise"
Painted bench installed on the central platform

Jason Vassell

Student of the John D.O'Bryant
Middle School
"Man's Best friend"
Painted bench installed on the central platform

MONUMENTS ON THE ORANGE LINE

Granite monuments inscribed with text located at the following stations:

Forest Hills Station

Thomas Hurley
"The Subway Collector"

Ethan Canin
"Lies"

Green Street Station

Mary Bonina
"Drift"

Daria MonDesire
"Reflections"

Stony Brook Station

Martin Espada
"Mrs. Baez Serves Coffee on the Third Floor"

Rosario Morales
"The Dinner"

Jackson Square Station

Christopher Gilbert
"Any Good Throat"

Christine Palamidessi Moore
"Grandmothers"

Roxbury Crossing Station

Jeannette DeLello Winthrop
"At Roxbury Crossing"

Luix Virgil Overbea
"Hometown"

Ruggles Station

Samuel Allen
"Harriet Tubman a.k.a.
Moses"

Will Holton
"Four Letters Home"

Massachusetts Avenue Station

Peter Rodman
"My Robe"

Sharon Cox
"Drum"

Back Bay Station

Jane Barnes
"Counterpoint"

Ruth Whitman
"If My Boundary Stops Here"

Tufts Medical Center Station

Maria Gordett
"Mr. Yee is in the Garden"

Gish Jen
"The Great World Transformed"