On Friday May 27, 2011, at approximately 4:30 PM, an MBTA bus operator was the victim of an Assault and Battery.

The victim was operating a Route #28 bus at the intersection of Warren Street and Intervale Street in Dorchester, when an unknown female in the company of two children told the bus operator he stopped the bus too quickly. She then spat in his face and on his upper body, and then fled the bus toward Intervale Street.

The suspect is described as:

A black female 30-40 years of age, wearing blue jean shorts, an orange and white outlined sleeveless shirt with black stripes and an orange halter strap, orange high heels, carrying two small school bags with logos on them.

The MBTA Transit Police Department is requesting assistance from the public in identifying this individual. Any information relative to her identity should be reported to the MBTA Transit Police Department at 617-222-1212 or the MBTA Criminal Investigations Unit at 617-222-1050.
